

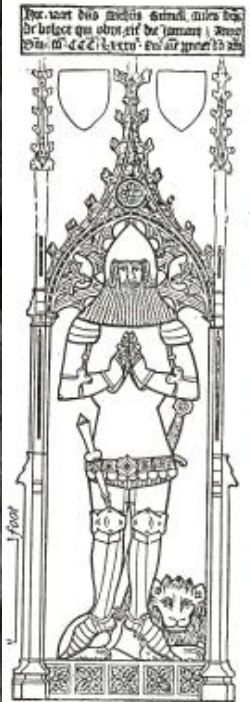

figure is here shewn as it probably appeared when complete, the restoration having been made from an incised slab at Creich in Fifeshire, dated 1400, the contour of the figure being very similar. It is remarkable that among the effigies

MACLEOD OF MACLEOD.

of the island chiefs, this, and other three of the MacLeods of the end of the fifteenth and the beginning of the sixteenth centuries, at Rodel in Harris, are among the very few Western effigies showing the contemporary armour of

MACMILLAIN ARCHIBOLD; BRYDEL, ROBERT, 1898. IONA: Its History, Antiquities, etc

1382

Ward, J.S.M. Brasses \(1912\)

Fig. 5. Sir Nicholas Burrell, 1382, Acton Burrell, Salep

IRM

IRM