

“An Address to Aonghus of Islay”

c.1250 – poem about Angus Mor Mac Donald’s exploits specifically in Ireland.

(v. 21).... “graceful long ships are sailed by thee, thou art like an otter, O scion of Tara” ...

*“There is not in Ireland nor in Scotland an Aonghus like thee, tho graceful form;